

Journal Entry Assignment

ACC101 (SBMA)

Recording Business Transactions Through Journal Entries

Objective: This assignment is designed to help students apply the basic principles of accounting by analyzing transactions and preparing accurate journal entries using the double-entry accounting system.

Read the following business transactions carefully. Prepare the proper journal entries for each transaction using the format below:

Date Account Title and Explanation Debit Credit

- Include the correct accounts affected
 - Apply proper debit and credit rules
 - Use clear descriptions/explanations
 - Show complete computations when necessary
-

Transactions

Assume the business is SBMA Trading and all transactions occurred during June 2026.

June Transactions

June 1 – The owner invested ₱150,000 cash into the business.	June 3 – Purchased office supplies on account for ₱12,500.	June 5 – Paid ₱18,000 cash for office rent.	June 8 – Purchased equipment worth ₱45,000 cash.	June 10 – Provided services to a client and received ₱28,000 cash.	June 27 – Paid utility expenses worth ₱4,500 cash.
June 12 – Paid ₱5,000 to suppliers for partial payment of account payable.	June 15 – Received ₱20,000 cash from a customer for services to be provided next month.	June 18 – Paid salaries amounting to ₱14,000.	June 22 – Rendered services on account worth ₱35,000.	June 25 – Collected ₱15,000 from customers on account.	June 30 – The owner withdrew ₱10,000 cash for personal use.

Requirements

Students must submit:

- Complete journal entries for all 12 transactions
- Proper dates and account titles
- Correct debit and credit amounts
- Neat and organized presentation